In spring, summer, fall or winter, your casual trip to the mountain resort will start from “Maya Viewline”.

Abundant nature with constantly changing beauty and a breathtaking view are the treasures of Mt. Maya. By taking the Maya Viewline, you can enjoy not only leisure activities on the top of the mountain but also hiking in a variety of courses, easily and comfortably.

◆Rokkosan Pasture ◆(078)981-0280
A tourist farm modeled after mountain pastures in Switzerland. There are North-European-style cowsheds and silos in its broad meadow with horses, cows, and sheep peacefully grazing. The Pony Rink features pony riding, and there is fresh milk straight from the cow. The Rokkosan QBB Cheese Castle situated in its southern area offers factory tours and exhibitions, where you can also relish various cheese dishes including cheese fondue.

◆Maya Shizen Kansatsu-en (Maya Nature Park)
In this vast garden of approx. 2 hectares surrounded by natural forests, beautiful flowering trees and flowers of wayside plants, temperate plants etc. bloom from season to season. Legend says that Hachidairyuuou, a Buddhist guardian to whom people pray for rain, held water from the well in this garden in his mouth and flew to India to make rain when Buddha was born. The well still produces water without ceasing. Admission free.

◆Hotel de Maya ◆(078)862-0008
This is an “auberge” on the top of the mountain. An auberge is a suburban restaurant with accommodation facilities included. Delight in the authentic Italian food with fresh herbs raised onsite and local ingredients.

●Kondo (Main Hall)
●Statue of Lady Maya

◆Mayasan Tenjo-ji Temple ◆(078)681-2684
This Shingon-sect temple is said to have been founded by Indian hermit Hodo. It houses a statue of Lady Maya (mother of Buddha), which was made to pray for the safe delivery and good health of children. Koubou Daishi was endowed with this from Tang and enshrined here, and this is said to be the origin of the name of Mt. Maya.
Opening hours: 9:00 – 17:00

●Maya Kodo (Ancient Path)

◆Hiking Course◆◆◆◆◆◆◆◆
There are a wide variety of hiking courses form the city area to Mt. Maya, which you can freely select depending on your age and experience. You may go for a hike to enjoy the seasonal beauty and wonderful scenery, or to follow a historical path. Taking Maya Viewline on the way back from the summit makes the courses more accessible.

◆Kobe Municipal Shizen no Ie ◆(078)891-0001
This is a center for outdoor activities, training and seminars for young people and adults.
